

Contra Costa Library Commissioner Office Hours (El Cerrito Designee)

Are you curious about the workings of the El Cerrito Library, or do you have suggestions on how it can better serve the community? The El Cerrito Library Commissioner and Alternate Commissioner are here to listen and engage with you during their new Office Hours. Starting March 1st, the El Cerrito Library Commissioner and Alternate Commissioner will be available at the library at 6510 Stockton Ave. for informal discussions.

Potential Discussion Topics:

- Library History and Operations: Learn about how the El Cerrito Library has evolved over time and the factors influencing its current state.
- Program and Service Proposals: Propose new programs, services, or books that you believe would benefit library patrons.
- Book Discussions: Chat about a book you've recently read, whether you loved it or found it lacking.
- Resources beyond books: Discover the world of the 4 ms — music and movies (Hoopla), museum tickets, and more, so much more.
- Volunteering Opportunities: Express your interest in volunteering and discover ways to contribute to the library's growth and success.
- Anything else: Any topic concerning our libraries, libraries in general, books, or even books about libraries!
